

2017-2018 JBU GALLERY SCHEDULE

“TOWB: A Story of Genesis I Told in Tapestries” Shirley Cunningham

TOWB is the Hebrew word for good that speaks to the beauty and specialness of creation as seen through the Genesis 1 story conveyed in tapestries.

August 31 – October 7

“The Romance and the Reality: Views from the Field” by Melissa Robinson

Stunning and gritty photographs from the Indonesian island of Belitung.

October 12 – November 11

“The Art of Sean Fitzgibbon”

New work by Fayetteville artist and graphic novelist Sean Fitzgibbon.

November 16 – December 14

“Joel Armstrong”

A collection of new work by recently retired JBU art faculty and award-winning artist Joel Armstrong.

January 18 – February 10

“Student Works 2018”

Our annual student competition featuring work in painting, drawing, photography, cinema, and fine art.

February 16 – March 16

“Charles Peer Collection”

New work by nationally acclaimed pastel artist and retiring JBU art professor Charles Peer.

March 27 – May 3