WELCOME FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Students:

Welcome to John Brown University. We are glad that you have chosen to join the JBU community.

John Brown University is committed to offering first-rate academic programs in a supportive Christian community. It is our desire that you will flourish during your time with us by coming to understand God, His world, and His design for your life.

John Brown University is first and foremost a teaching institution, and our faculty, staff and administrators are dedicated to helping students learn. They are excellent scholars and professionals as well as caring people committed to mentoring and advising students. You should take the initiative to get to know them because these relationships may well be life-changing.

This catalog should answer most, if not all, of your questions. It outlines the policies and standards that should guide your educational program here at JBU.

May God bless and keep you during your time here at John Brown University.

God-speed,

Dr. Chip Pollard
President

UNIVERSITY PROFILE

The Mission of the University

The faculty and board of trustees have accepted the following statement as being an accurate expression of the university basic mission:

John Brown University provides Christ-centered education that prepares people to honor God and serve others by developing their intellectual, spiritual, and professional lives.

Statement of Faith

The doctrinal position of the institution is contained in the following Articles of Faith which have been adopted by the National Association of Evangelical's:

1. We believe the Bible to be the inspired, the only infallible, authoritative word of God.
2. We believe that there is one God, eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death through His shed blood, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, and in His personal return in power and glory.
4. We believe that for the salvation of lost and sinful people regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential.
5. We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life.
6. We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; they that are saved unto the resurrection of life and they that are lost unto the resurrection of damnation.
7. We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Educational Philosophy

The faculty has expressed its purpose as sending forth graduates

Whose lives reflect the love of Christ

Through reverence toward God.

Through consecration to Christ and His Church.

Through knowledge of the Bible and appreciation of its principles.

Through participation in Christian activities with talents, means, and time.

Through tolerance, humility, and helpfulness to others.

Who possess intellectual integrity and an enthusiasm for continuing self-development

Through use of mental processes which lead to intelligent decisions.

Through familiarization with sources of information.

Through utilization of knowledge.

Through mastery of means of communication of ideas.

Who are able to function effectively in a multicultural world

Through a heightened awareness of diverse cultural contexts and values.

Through development of skills and attitudes necessary to interact, work, and minister with people of other cultures.

Through understanding the inclusiveness of God's Kingdom and the equality of all people before God.

Through formation of a Christian perspective of the world.

Who are eager and able to perform a share of the world's work

Through their willing response to God's unique plan.

Through working in chosen vocations with skill, efficiency, and dedication.

Through a cooperative and understanding attitude toward fellow workers.

Who make worthy contributions to their communities

Through active cooperation with other people toward general community improvement.

Through promoting wholesome entertainment, adequate educational programs, and other phases of community welfare.

Through exercising their political privileges in the spirit of Christ.

Through practicing the high ideals of love and justice toward all people.

History

John Brown University's rich history began with an enthusiastic author, educator, radio broadcaster, and evangelist, John E. Brown, who recognized the need for an academic institution that would prepare young people to serve Christ. In 1919, with a goal of educating the "Head, Heart, and Hand," John Brown laid the foundation for the institution that would later be called John Brown University. The vision of JBU has been carried through its ninety-eight year history by the leadership of the founder, his son, John Brown Jr., his grandson, John Brown III, and Presidents George Ford, Lee Balzer, and now Charles Pollard.

Head

The university offers an education based on a liberal arts Core Curriculum and 44 undergraduate majors in traditional format. Also available at JBU are academic opportunities for professionals and graduates. The JBU Degree Completion Program (now known as JBU Online Undergraduate) was established in 1993 to meet the needs of working adults and allows them to complete their undergraduate degree. In 1995, JBU began offering graduate classes. The Graduate School offers master's degrees in Business, Counseling, Fine Arts, and Teacher Education.

Heart

Since its founding, JBU has sought to nourish the spiritual life of its students. Professors and students work together to integrate a Christian worldview with their understanding and practice of academic disciplines. Professors and staff also make themselves available to guide and mentor students in the faith.

Within the JBU community, there are a variety of opportunities for students to deepen and live out their faith. Chapel services are held three times a week and feature dynamic worship and gifted guest speakers. A wide variety of ministry opportunities are offered to students through the Office of Christian Formation.

Hand

Students also gain valuable professional and personal life-skills that equip them to serve in business, education, industry, ministry, the arts, and a variety of other fields. Students and graduates are encouraged to integrate faith in the workplace and in every area of their lives.

While the scope of JBU's mission has grown over the last 98 years, the central direction of that mission has remained the same: "Christ Over All."

Accreditation

John Brown University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, <http://hlccommission.org>, (800) 621-7440 and is approved by the Arkansas State Department of Education.

All business degree programs of the Soderquist College of Business are accredited by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP), <http://www.acbsp.org>, (913) 339-9356.

Council for Christian Colleges & Universities

John Brown University is a charter member of the Council for Christian Colleges & Universities (CCCU), a resource- and information-sharing association of 118 Christ-centered colleges and universities. Member schools, which must be accredited institutions, are committed to maintaining the highest academic standards within an environment which fosters moral and spiritual development in individuals and communities.

Incorporated in 1982, the CCCU includes schools representing more than 30 denominations and offers numerous interchange programs in academics and assessment. Headquarters are at 329 Eighth Street NE, Washington, DC 20002, <http://www.cccu.org>, (202) 546-8913.

Locations

Located in one of the fastest growing areas in the nation, John Brown University is an inter-denominational Christian university. JBU faculty and staff work to provide a tremendous number of experiential learning opportunities for students, in and out of the classroom, that develop the "Head, Heart, and Hand." JBU's main campus is located in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Educational Centers for the JBU Online Undergraduate Program are located in key metropolitan areas of Arkansas: Northwest Arkansas (Rogers), Fort Smith, and Little Rock.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants to JBU's Online Undergraduate Program must have 45 hours of transferable credit, as determined by John Brown University, with a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or better on the 4.0 scale.

Applicants must submit:

1. Application for Admission accompanied by $25 non-refundable application fee.
2. Official copies of transcripts from all colleges attended. Transcripts must be mailed by the college or university directly to the graduate Admissions Office at John Brown University.
3. New students who were born on or after January 1, 1957, regardless of the number of hours enrolled, are required by Arkansas law to furnish proof of immunity against measles, mumps, and rubella. MMR vaccination may be confirmed by an immunization record from a doctor's office, health department, or school records. This requirement does not apply to students who are enrolled in online courses only. For more information, please contact your admissions counselor.

Requirements for Undeclared Major

A student who wants to enter one of our JBU Online Undergraduate Program majors and meets the other admission requirements of the associated JBU Online Undergraduate major, but does not yet have at least 45 hours of prior college credit can be admitted as an Undeclared major until the required 45 hours is reached. These students can take any JBU class as an elective (prerequisites must be met) as long as the intent is to reach 45 hours and then enroll in one of our JBU Online Undergraduate majors.

Valuables

The university does not assume any responsibility for lost or stolen property, nor does it carry fire, theft, or damage insurance on the personal property of students.

Student Accounts

Tuition and fees are due prior to the start of each term. Payment will be the term's charges less financial aid (i.e. scholarships, grants, and loans) that is listed as pending or posted on the student's financial account. Online payments may be transacted through EagleNet by E-check, VISA, MasterCard, Discover, and American Express. Paper checks should be mailed to JBU to the attention of the university Cashier.

The university reserves the right to change the fee structure as needed to fund the payment plan program. Students who are in arrears on their student financial account will not be allowed to enroll in a new term. Additionally, official transcripts of academic credits are not released while any balance is owed JBU. The university engages professional collection agencies when collecting delinquent accounts.

For additional information and resources regarding student financial accounts, see the Student Account Services web page on EagleNet. The Student Accounts Representative may be contacted at studentaccounts@jbu.edu.

Financial Aid

Each year a majority of students attending John Brown University benefit from federal or state grants, or federal loans. Students enrolled at least half-time and seeking financial aid are required to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). To ensure that financial aid eligibility is determined in a timely manner, submit the FAFSA at least eight weeks prior to registration.

Based on information supplied by a student's FAFSA results, the Financial Aid Office will determine each student's financial aid award offer. Consideration for financial assistance will occur only after the student has received a tentative or final acceptance through the Admissions Office. Returning students will be awarded assistance if they are making satisfactory academic progress. To continue to receive federal financial aid, a student must file a new FAFSA each year.

The federal government sponsors student assistance programs to those who have demonstrated financial need. Through the Federal Pell Grant Program, students may receive as much as $5,920 per year, based on authorization from Congress. Students may also be eligible for assistance from other sources, such as a low interest Direct Loans (subsidized or unsubsidized) to help cover both the direct and indirect costs of education. Award amounts depend on financial need.

John Brown University participates in the following state aid programs:

- Arkansas Challenge Scholarship
- Higher Education Opportunities (GO! Opportunities Grant)
- Workforce Improvement Grant (WIG)
- National Guard Tuition Incentive Program (GTIP)

A student can apply for the Challenge and GO scholarships via the YOUiversal Scholarship Application located on the Arkansas Department of Higher Education (ADHE) web site. The ADHE Financial Aid Division web page states guidelines for student eligibility, as well as minimum and maximum award amounts, including aggregate maximum amounts. The state communicates directly with a student about eligibility, award amounts, and disbursement schedules. The state notifies JBU of award recipients via electronic rosters.

The Financial Aid Office awards WIG to students who meet ADHE eligibility criteria. Limited funds are available.

A student can apply for the GTIP scholarship online. Guidelines for eligibility, as well as minimum and maximum award amounts are available on the GTIP web site.

Financial Aid Policy

All students enrolled at John Brown University who receive financial aid through JBU or the federal Title IV Assistance Programs must meet the satisfactory academic progress requirements as defined below in order to be eligible for further aid.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

In order to be eligible to apply for financial assistance, a student must meet the qualitative and quantitative SAP standards.

1. The GPA Standard (Qualitative)

- Undergraduate students must achieve and maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least a 2.0 (“C” average) or must have an academic standing consistent with JBU’s requirements for graduation.
- Graduate students must achieve and maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least a 2.8 to continue in the JBU Graduate Program and be eligible to receive aid.

2. The Pace of Progress Standard (Quantitative)

- Students must pass a minimum of 67% of the credits attempted during their academic career.
 - In accordance with Federal Student Aid requirements, the Financial Aid Office allows the student the opportunity to receive federal aid for only one retake of a class. A repeated course is counted as attempted and successfully completed if a passing grade is earned.
- Undergraduate students cannot attempt more than 150% of the credits required for completion of the student’s degree.
 - In the case of a transfer student who may have earned credits at another institution, only the credits that apply to the student’s degree will be considered as part of the 150% degree maximum.

Appeal Process

If a student does not successfully meet the satisfactory academic progress standards, the Financial Aid Office will notify the students in writing of his or her suspension of financial aid. The Financial Aid Office will email students with this notification and the email will additionally contain the institutional policy regarding appeals procedures. The student may submit a written appeal to the Associate Vice President of Financial Aid within 30 calendar days of the notification of their financial aid status suspension. Submission of an appeal does not guarantee that probationary status will be granted to a student who does not meet SAP requirements. The Associate Vice President reviews appeals on a case-by-case basis and upon completion of the appeal review, the student will be notified by the Financial Aid Office of the decision.

While the Associate Vice President may allow for other mitigating circumstances depending on the merit of the appeal, some examples where the university makes allowances for mitigating circumstances include:

- Serious illness of a family member
- Medical complications or prolonged illness of the student
- Inability to attend classes due to unexpected lack of transportation
- Serious financial problems requiring excessive hours of employment
- Death in the family or death of a close friend

Upon successful appeal, a student is allowed a probation period of one year to meet the SAP requirements in which the student will continue to receive assistance. If a student does not meet SAP requirements upon completion of their probation period, they are ineligible to receive financial aid under the Title IV, HEA program requirements.

Additionally, if a student has extenuating circumstances that require an extension of time to complete a degree, the student may submit a written appeal to the Financial Aid Committee for review of the Pace of Progress Standard.

An appeal for financial aid eligibility is a separate process from the appeal process for academic suspension conducted through the Office of the Registrar. A successful appeal with the Office of the Registrar after academic suspension does not necessarily reinstate a student's financial aid.

Additional SAP Considerations

- Incompletes: An incomplete (I) is counted as an attempted class that was not successfully completed.
- Per traditional undergraduate academic policy, an incomplete grade must be made up within 30 days after the official grade reporting date. After the 30 days, the incomplete grade will be changed to the grade of an 'F' and can only be changed upon approval of the instructor and the Dean of JBU Online Undergraduate program. In extenuating circumstances, the instructor may request an extension date from the Associate Dean of Academic Services.
- Withdrawals: a withdrawal (w) is counted as an attempted class that was not successfully completed.
- For semester-based JBU Online Undergraduate students, a withdrawal is counted as an attempted class that was not successfully completed. However, for term-based JBU Online Undergraduate students, a withdrawal received during the add/drop period does not factor into the SAP calculation; withdrawals after the add/drop period immediately incur an 'F' and count as an attempted class that was not successfully completed.
- Not-for-credit remedial course work and audited courses are not counted in SAP calculations.
- Transfer hours: Transfer hours that apply to a student's degree count as hours attempted and completed, but they are not considered in the calculation of cumulative GPA.
- Students pursuing a second degree: Students pursuing a second degree are not eligible for the Pell Grant. Students are only eligible for loans up to 150% of the hours required to obtain their degree. Students who have completed a degree, but who have not enrolled in a new degree program are not eligible for financial aid.

- Determining official or unofficial withdrawal: JBU has several procedures in place for determining whether or not a student officially withdrew for students who received all 'F' or 'I' grades in a term.

Online Undergraduate

When a JBU Online Undergraduate student fails to attend classes and fails to notify proper administrators that they wish to withdraw, the university utilizes one of two methods to address these situations. First, the professor submits an Ally Alert that a student failed to attend or, in the case of an online class, failed to submit assignments. After the administration appropriately reviews the situation to confirm that the student will not continue in the class, the administration sends a withdrawal form to each of the campus offices affected, including the Financial Aid Office.

Veterans Administration Benefits

John Brown University is an approved institution for veterans and veterans' beneficiaries training. Veterans, widows, and children of veterans who lost their lives in service, or veterans who are now disabled as a result of service should contact the nearest Veterans Administration Regional Office as far in advance of enrollment date as possible for assistance in securing Veterans Administration benefits. Information regarding this program may be obtained from JBU's VA Certifying Official at registrar@jbu.edu.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

Policies which apply to the JBU Online Undergraduate Program (OU) are set forth in this section. Additional requirements applicable to specific OU programs are stated in the curricular outlines that appear in the academic programs requirements section of the catalog. OU observes the general academic policies of the university, except as indicated below.

The ultimate responsibility for understanding university policies and meeting all degree requirements rests with the student.

Students Subject to the Catalog Provisions

All students are subject to the provisions of the catalog which was in effect at the time of their first enrollment at John Brown University, with the exception of charges for tuition, etc., which apply only for a specified period of time. If a student leaves JBU and later returns, that student is subject to the catalog in effect at the time of re-enrollment.

Changes in Requirements and Regulations

The university reserves the right to make modifications in policies, procedures, and regulations: e.g., grading system, transfer of credit, guidelines for degree requirements, housing regulations and charges, tuition and fees, and admission standards, and to make such modifications applicable to any or all currently-enrolled students. When modifications occur, sensitivity to reasonable dates of implementation and appropriate categories of currently-enrolled students affected will be exercised. Students will be notified of such changes through their advisor, written notices, and campus publications.

Course Credits

The basic unit of course credit is the semester hour.

Enrollment Status

JBU Online Undergraduate students are considered full-time if enrolled in a total of twelve hours per 16-week semester (online semesters are comprised of two eight-week terms, except summer).

Prerequisites and Corequisites

Students are not permitted to enroll in courses for which they have not completed all prerequisites. A prerequisite course must have been completed with an acceptable passing grade before enrollment in the given course is permitted. A corequisite is a course in which a student must be enrolled and satisfactorily participating simultaneously to the given course.

Transfer of Credit

Credit which has been earned at another institution will be reviewed by both the Registrar and the Department Head, and the applicability to courses in the chosen degree program will be determined.

Each course accepted for transfer must have a minimum grade of 'C'. All work completed at previous institutions will be posted as 'CR' on the student's JBU transcript. Thus, only JBU course work will apply toward the student's grade point average. Credits from institutions which are not regionally accredited may be accepted on a case-by-case basis.

Currently enrolled students planning to take course work at other institutions must receive prior written approval of their advisor and the Registrar. Official course descriptions of proposed work may be required.

Transfer of Credit into the Major

Some students may previously have completed courses which are deemed equivalent to certain JBU courses. Applicability of credit is determined by the Registrar's Office, who may establish a maximum number of outside credits to be transferred, depending upon the type of curriculum and the awarding institution.

Articulation Agreements

JBU has established articulation agreements with several area community colleges. Please refer to this web site, www.jbu.edu/admissions/transfers/articulation-agreements/, for further information.

Credit Options

The credit applying toward a degree may include as many as 60 semester hours earned by means of alternative activities, such as credit by exam (30 hours maximum) and credit for prior learning (30 hours maximum) or credit for military training. In addition to taking elective courses, there are several non-traditional credit options available for students to earn credit toward a JBU Online Undergraduate degree, including:

Credit by Examination

Students may earn credit through selected nationally recognized standardized tests. Such tests include the College Level Examination Program (CLEP), the DAN TES Subject Standardized Tests (DSST) and certain other tests approved by the American Council on Education (ACE). A maximum of 30 credit hours may be earned by examination.

Credit for Prior Learning (CPL)

The university recognizes that collegiate-level learning may occur outside the college/university classroom and has established specific procedures and policies for evaluating and granting credits for such learning. CPL may be earned only for documented and currently held learning, and is not granted simply for experience. This learning may have resulted from personal study, travel, work experience, workshops and seminars, military training, or other professional or vocational experiences. The guidelines recommended by the Council for Adult and Experiential Learning will generally be followed, except where they might conflict with existing policies of the university.

Some classroom-based corporate or military learning experiences have been evaluated for college credit equivalency by the American Council on Education (ACE). In these cases, official transcripts or other direct documentation must be provided.

Students in the JBU Online Undergraduate Program are encouraged to develop a portfolio of prior learning. JBU assesses that learning according to standards set by the Council for Adult and Experiential Learning. Some of these standards are:

- Credit should be awarded only for learning and not for experience.
- College credit should be awarded only for college-level learning.
- Credit should be awarded only for learning that has a balance, appropriate to the subject, between theory and practical application.
- The determination of competence levels and of credit awards must be made by appropriate subject matter and academic experts.
- Credit should be appropriate to the academic context in which it is accepted.

Credit for Prior Learning provides JBU with a means of assessing learning associated with previous life-learning situations.

Visit with your admissions counselor for more information about non-traditional credit options.

Maximum Experiential Credits

The maximum total credit allowed for vocal and instrumental ensembles toward the requirements of a bachelor's degree is four hours.

Traditional Courses Taken at JBU

Students who enroll in any JBU classes that are not part of the JBU Online Undergraduate Program will be subject to the policies of the traditional university program (parking privileges, drop/add schedules, registration deadlines, fees, etc.) as appropriate. These policies are found in the JBU Online Undergraduate catalog.

Maximum Course Load

To be considered a full time student, JBU Online Undergraduate students must complete 12 hours during a reporting term. However, students are allowed to complete up to 18 hours during one reporting term (nine hours in Term 1 classes and nine hours in Term 2 classes). Students who have been placed on academic probation will be limited to 15 hours during one reporting term.

Attendance Requirements

Because of the intensive nature of the curriculum and the participatory structure of course work in these programs, it is imperative that students attend every scheduled class and participate in each week's activity for courses delivered online.

Hybrid Delivered Programs:

Hybrid courses require online and face-to-face activities weekly. In the hybrid programs, missing three sessions, excused or unexcused, will result in a grade of 'F' (face-to-face or online).

For face-to-face classes, students who fail to attend any 15 minute consecutive period of a class session may be considered partially absent. Two partial absences for any one course are the equivalent of one absence of the respective course.

For all classes, students are expected to login to the Blackboard module regularly (at least 3 days a week) to check the announcements and work schedule, and complete all assignments for the week. (The due date for assignments may not be extended for purposes of achieving attendance.)

Online Delivered Programs:

An absence for online class is defined in two ways (either of which will incur an absence):

- a. not submitting any assigned work for the week;
- b. not demonstrating evidence of reading assigned chapters or viewing assigned videos, tutorials, or other media posted by the professor. Evidence includes posting to discussion forums, responding to other students' posts, and generally logging in to participate and engage in course materials.

Excused absences are defined as an absence that are unforeseen, emergency or life threatening (required documentation). In cases of excused absences, class work can be submitted for credit, but it still counts as an absence.

- a. Death or serious illness in the immediate family.
- b. Local emergencies requiring immediate attention (examples: tornado damage, flooding, etc.).

*Students are responsible for providing written evidence by email with any supporting documentation attached to substantiate "excused absences."

Unexcused Absences are defined as an absence that are cannot be documented or for personal reasons. In cases of unexcused absences, class work cannot be submitted for full credit.

- a. Non-emergency medical/work/personal reasons, which cannot be documented.

*Instructors are neither obligated, nor expected to permit a student to make up work missed because of unexcused absences. If a student is allowed to make up such work, full credit may not be allowed.

It is the responsibility of the student to notify the professor in advance of any activity that will interfere with class attendance. Such notification must be made using JBU email

Late Assignments

Students are required to submit all assignments when due. Homework is designed to prepare students for class collaboration and learning. On a case-by-case basis, instructors may accept late work for partial credit at their own discretion. If late work is accepted it is subject to a 10% reduction per day late. Unless there is an extreme emergency or medical event (documentation is required), assignments will not be accepted for credit, if it is not submitted within seven days of the original due date.

Non-Attendance Resulting in Withdrawal

Except in cases of extenuating circumstances, students who do not attend any class for ten consecutive days may be withdrawn from John Brown University for non-attendance. It is the responsibility of the student to contact instructors, advisor, Registrar, Student Account Services, and Financial Aid if extenuating circumstances exist.

Textbooks and Other Course Materials

Students have options for obtaining most books and materials for their courses. As part of the pre-registration process, students are given the option to receive materials from the bookstore at JBU, which is operated by Follett Corporation, by purchasing new, used, or renting. Students may also choose to purchase materials from other sources, but are responsible to make sure they have the correct edition of texts. Students with adequate financial aid may be able to obtain their materials from the bookstore using that aid.

Inclement Weather Policy

During the winter season, inclement weather sometimes necessitates the cancellation of face-to-face classes. Rather than calling your Center, please take advantage of JBU's communication options.

There are a few ways to know if your class is canceled. The easiest is to register for Information Alerts via the Crisis Alert System on JBU's intranet, EagleNet. The CAS is location specific and is the most up-to-date information available about class cancellation. (Note: class cancellations are an information alert – not a crisis alert – so make sure to register for Information Alerts to hear when classes are cancelled.) Alerts are sent to your JBU email and via a phone call. You may also choose to receive information via text messaging or to an alternative email address. In most circumstances, the decision to cancel is made around 3:00 p.m. Keep in mind, if there is no notification, it's safe to assume that your class will meet.

In addition, we will post closing information on each Center's Facebook page (click the link for each location's page).

- Fort Smith
- Little Rock
- Rogers

The information will also be posted to the JBU Online Undergraduate web site, on the program's Twitter page and broadcast on local television and radio stations when possible.

Note: only face-to-face classes are cancelled due to inclement weather; online classes will continue as scheduled, regardless of weather.

Due to the accelerated nature of our curriculum, all face-to-face courses offered in the JBU Online Undergraduate Program will require a makeup course session. If your class is cancelled, you can expect to hear from your office manager and/or instructor regarding meeting times for a makeup session.

Your safety is our utmost concern, so if classes are being held but road conditions make it too dangerous for you to attend, please contact your instructor as soon as possible to determine how to submit your missed assignment(s). Again, we ask that rather than calling your Center, you plan ahead by choosing one of the above options to access any inclement weather notifications.

Classroom Demeanor

Students are expected to display classroom and online behavior that is appropriate to a professional program at a Christian university. A professor may remove a student from a class if, in the professor's judgment, the student displays behavior that is uncivil, defiant, or otherwise disruptive to the classroom learning environment. Students dismissed from a class may not return to the class without the permission of the professor. Online postings require polite behavior; evidenced in font, word use, and grammar that is indicative of college level, professional communication.

Academic Integrity

As a Christian institution of higher education, John Brown University seeks to maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. Violations of these standards will result in substantial penalties. Violations and their definitions are as follows:

- a) Plagiarism: Submitting as part or all of one's own work material that is copied or paraphrased from another source, including online sources, without the proper acknowledgment of that source. Examples include: failing to cite a reference, failing to use quotation marks where appropriate, misrepresenting another's work as your own, etc.
- b) Cheating: Using unauthorized material or study aids for assistance on examinations or other academic work. Examples include: looking at a peer's exam, altering a graded exam, using notes without permission, etc.
- c) Fabrication: Submitting altered or contrived information in any academic assignment. Examples include: falsifying data, text material, or sources.
- d) Facilitating academic dishonesty: Helping another student violate this policy. Examples include: allowing one's work to be copied, working together on an assignment where collaboration is not allowed, doing work for another student.

Faculty Action Regarding Violations of Academic Integrity

All violations of the academic integrity policy will be reported to the office of the Dean, who will maintain a file on student offenses.

First offense: In the first case of dishonesty, the faculty member will normally give the student a zero for the assignment or test on which the student has been dishonest. Faculty members are free to impose more severe penalties if such penalties are announced in the course syllabus.

Second offense: A second violation of the integrity policy in the same course or in any other course will result in an 'F' in the course.

Third offense: Any further violations of the integrity policy may result in suspension or dismissal from the university.

Appeal

A student who feels that he or she has been unfairly accused or unjustly treated may appeal to the Dean by sending an email with facts and any documentation available.

Grading System

Indication of each student's progress is reported regularly by instructors. Grades are issued following each term. The grading scale used as a basis for letter grades is established by the instructor of each course. Grade points per semester hour (effective Fall 1999) are determined as follows:

A	Superior Accomplishment	4.0
A-		3.7
B+		3.3
B	Commendable Accomplishment	3.0
B-		2.7
C+		2.3
C	Satisfactory Accomplishment	2.0
C-		1.7
D+		1.3
D	Minimal Accomplishment	1.0
F	Failure	0.0

The following are not included in grade point average:

I - Incomplete Work	S - Satisfactory
NC - No Credit Earned	U - Unsatisfactory
WP - Withdrew Passing	WF - Withdrew, Failing
W - Withdrew	Earned Grade

Incomplete Grades

In extenuating circumstances, students may be allowed to receive an incomplete ('I') grade for a particular course only with prior approval of the instructor and dean. The remaining work must be completed and graded according to arrangements made with the instructor but no later than one month after the original due date. If the student does not complete the work by this deadline, the instructor will assign a grade based on work received, or the grade will convert to 'F' automatically by the Registrar.

Adding and Dropping Courses

Students register for courses during the official published registration time periods. Students may not register for courses after the close of the late registration time period. Course registrations and additions completed during the late registration period must have approval from the dean and are subject to a late fee.

If a student wishes to drop a course during a term, the student must notify their advisor before the first class session. The Student Accounts Representative will credit the student's account for that course's tuition. The course will not appear on the transcript.

If the student withdraws after the beginning of the first class but prior to the end of the third week of classes, the student will receive a 'W' for the course. After this time, the student will not be eligible for a grade of 'W'; the student will receive the grade earned.

Withdrawal from the university or dropping a course may have implications for student financial aid or veterans' benefits.

Tuition will be refunded to the student and a grade of 'W' or 'F' will be posted based on the following schedule:

Drop Notification/Refunds

Drop Notification/Refunds for JBU Online Undergraduate Courses	Amount of Refund	Grade Earned
During the first week of classes	100% refund	No Grade
During the second week of classes	80% refund	W
During the third week of classes	40% refund	W
After the third week of classes	No refund	Earned Grade

Students taking hybrid courses can only change from hybrid to online or vice versa during week 1. After week 1, changes in modality cannot be made. Please contact your advisor for more information.

Other non-tuition fees are not refundable. See refund policies for Traditional Undergraduate Studies and Graduate Studies if enrolling in courses from those programs.

Re-Enrolling in Courses

If a student drops, withdraws, or fails a course, the student will need to contact their advisor to determine when the course is offered again and how to re-enroll in the course. The cost for repeated courses (those for which the student received a 'W' or 'F') is full tuition.

Auditing Courses

JBU Online Undergraduate students may register for courses on a non-credit or audit basis provided the proper procedure is followed, either at initial registration for the term or by official change of registration prior to the stated deadlines. The names of such students will be entered on the class roll, and the class appears in the student's academic record, but without credit and with final grade of 'AU' or 'U'. It is the responsibility of the student to obtain a statement of grading criteria for satisfactory participation from the instructor. Tuition is charged at one half of the rate of for-credit registration and subject to the same regulations.

Grade Renewal

A student may repeat any course on his or her academic record with prior approval of the Department Head and the Registrar, with the understanding that all courses and grades will remain on the permanent record. However, only one taking of the course may contribute hours to the total for graduation, and only the highest grade received will be included in the calculation of the student's grade point average.

If the student receives permission and renews a grade by means of transferring an equivalent course from another institution, the completed course is posted with a grade of 'CR', and any prior attempts are excluded from graduation hours and the grade point average.

Grade Point Average

To receive a degree, the grade point average of all degree work must be at least 2.0, and in the major at least 2.25.

Residence Requirements

Fulfillment of the residence requirements for a JBU Online Undergraduate bachelor's degree from John Brown University consists of completion by means of courses taken in residence of at least 36 hours of credit presented in fulfillment of degree requirements. Of those, at least 32 hours must be in the major field of study.

Scholastic Probation and Required Achievement for Continued Enrollment

1. A student with a cumulative grade point average (CGPA) less than 2.0 will be placed on probation the following term.
2. The maximum enrollment per term for any student on scholastic probation is 15 term hours. Students should understand that such limited enrollment may lengthen the time required to meet graduation requirements.
3. A student whose CGPA is still below 2.0 after being on probation for two successive terms, or a student with less than a 1.0 term GPA, will be suspended unless a petition for re-enrollment is approved by the Associate Registrar.
4. A student may enroll after one term of academic suspension if a petition is approved by the Associate Registrar.
5. A student who is permitted to re-enroll after academic suspension may continue to re-enroll if satisfactory progress is being made toward a 2.0 CGPA as determined by the Registrar's Office.
6. A student on scholastic probation may remain eligible for some types of financial aid, if standards for Satisfactory Academic Progress are met.

Minimum Total Semester Hours

Completion of any bachelor's degree at John Brown University requires at least 124 hours of academic credit. Certain programs exceed the minimum.

Sufficient courses must be completed to offset any deficiency in total number of semester hours in addition to all other specific requirements, preferably in an area which will enrich and broaden the student's acquaintance with the major areas of knowledge.

Non-Degree Seeking Students

In most cases, a maximum of 15 hours may be completed under non-degree status. Permission to take more than 15 hours is subject to approval by the respective Program Director and the Dean. Students enrolled in degree programs have priority over non-degree students in class registrations and on waitlists. Non-Degree seeking students must meet the admissions requirements required for the JBU Online Undergraduate Program in order to register.

Double Major

Students who wish to pursue a second major within the JBU Online Undergraduate Program must complete all unique hours within the second major. Students are allowed to transfer in up to 25% of the second major from another university. Students who wish to complete a second major must do so prior to graduating. Once a student has graduated they cannot add a second major.

Additional Bachelor's Degrees

For two bachelor's degrees, a minimum of 154 semester hours must be completed incorporating all requirements for both degrees. A maximum of 36 credits by exam may be included. All other stipulations of the residence requirements apply to the second as well as to the first degree.

Fresh Start Policy

A student who re-enrolls in the university after an absence of seven or more years and completes one full-time semester or term with a 2.0 GPA or higher may request a "Fresh Start" by petitioning the Dean. If the petition is approved, none of the credits earned prior to the absence will be included in the GPA calculation and only those with a 'C' or higher may be used to fulfill graduation requirements. In effect, the Fresh Start treats early JBU work as transfer work. After the "Fresh Start" is applied to a student's transcript, those courses with a 'C' or higher will be designated by 'CR' and those with a 'C-' or lower will be designated by 'NC'.

Graduation

Application for Graduation

An Application for Graduation form, available on-line during the preregistration process, should be completed when registering for the final semester or term in residence before completion of degree requirements. This application provides information regarding the graduation fee, exit assessment requirements, and a final check of the student's name as it is to appear on the diploma and in the commencement program. A graduation application fee will be charged to the student's account at the time the application for graduation has been submitted.

Participation in Commencement Exercises

Degree candidates may participate in commencement exercises only upon completion of all degree requirements no later than the last day of the semester. Any course work in progress at other institutions must be completed during terms ending no later than one week following JBU commencement.

Students not enrolled at JBU during the semester in which they plan to graduate must contact the Registrar's Office in writing during the first two weeks of the term, declaring their intention to participate in commencement. Failure to do so may result in the student not being listed in the printed commencement program.

Eligibility to participate in commencement is limited to the commencement at the end of the student's final semester in attendance or the commencement at the end of the following semester. Furthermore, participation eligibility is dependent upon compliance with all of the deadlines posted on the commencement web site.

Scholastic Awards

Recognition of Superior Achievement

Full-time students attaining certain standards of scholastic achievement are placed on the President's or Dean's List of Distinguished Students at the end of each term. To qualify for the Dean's list, the student must have at least 3.4 term GPA on a minimum of 12 semester hours, and at least 3.8 term GPA for the President's list.

Degree Honors

Upon completion of the bachelor's degree, each graduate who has attained a cumulative grade point average of 3.6 or above is recognized with an appropriate degree honor. Eligibility is contingent upon completion of at least 60 semester hours of graded course work at John Brown University. Graduation honors are indicated on the diploma and by the wearing of an appropriate medal on the gown during the commencement exercises.

Cum Laude-Grade point average at least 3.6

Magna Cum Laude-Grade point average at least 3.8

Summa Cum Laude-Grade point average at least 3.9

Students who have between 39 and 59 semester hours of graded course work at John Brown University and have a grade point average of 3.8 or higher will graduate "with distinction." With Distinction honors are indicated on the diploma and by the wearing of an appropriate tassel on the cap during the commencement exercises.

Transcripts

An official transcript of a student's academic record may be obtained by submitting a transcript request form to the Registrar's Office, provided the student has made satisfactory arrangements with Student Account Services with respect to financial obligations. Transcripts are not released unless the student grants permission through a signed statement.

The first official transcript is issued without charge; a $5 fee is incurred for each official transcript thereafter.

Official transcripts of academic credits are not released while the student's account is in arrears. The university engages professional collection agencies to deal with delinquent accounts, as necessary.

Withdrawal from the Program

Students wishing to withdraw from the JBU Online Undergraduate Program must contact their academic advisor to complete the withdrawal process.

Academic Grievance Process

To file a complaint about a faculty person-the way he/she conducts class, lack of objectivity in grading, etc.-students should follow the process outlined below.

1. Discuss the specific complaint and your desired resolution with the faculty person.
2. If talking to the faculty person fails to bring resolution, you may meet/discuss with the Department Head and present a concise, well-thought-out, written statement of the problem and the desired resolution.
3. The Department Head will offer to meet with you and the accused faculty person. If you are unwilling to attend such a meeting, your complaint will be considered dropped. If you consent to the meeting, then the Department Head will be responsible for documenting the proceedings and the outcome in writing.
4. The accused faculty person or you may request a second meeting within seven days to which both the faculty person and you, within the limits set by the Department Head, may invite colleagues and students. The Department Head, at their discretion, may request the presence of the Dean of the JBU Online Undergraduate Program.
5. If the problem is not resolved to the satisfaction of either party, a written appeal may be made to the Vice President of Academic Affairs who is empowered to make the final decision. The Vice President of Academic Affairs will respond with a final decision in writing to those involved.

Appeal Procedure

Occasionally a student may wish to appeal an academic action such as a grade, a graduation requirement, or a withdrawal penalty. Such appeals should be made in writing to the Dean of the JBU Online Undergraduate Program. In most cases the student should first request the support of their Department Head.

JBU ONLINE UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM

Duke (dean)

The JBU Online Undergraduate Program provides online educational opportunities for students through compressed degree programs at various locations in central and northwest Arkansas and online. Our flexible classes offer working adults the opportunity to earn a quality bachelor's degree.

Working together with faculty from other areas of the university, the JBU Online Undergraduate Program offers majors in Organizational Leadership, Business Administration, Management Accounting, Liberal Arts, and Psychology. Program requirements are met through traditional college course work, credit by exam, credit for prior learning, successful completion of the specified sequence of courses in the major field, and completion of a capstone project. These programs do not follow the traditional university calendar. New groups begin at various times, and classes meet throughout the year without regard to usual university breaks.

The JBU Online Undergraduate Program offers selected general education courses and electives in an accelerated format for its students.

Certain policies of the JBU Online Undergraduate Program do not coincide with those of the university at large. Where conflicts arise, students in the JBU Online Undergraduate Program follow the specific regulations established by the Program. General university policy applies in other areas.

Additional information may be obtained from the JBU Online Undergraduate Program office on the Siloam Springs campus, online, or at any of the following JBU centers:

Fort Smith Center, 1401 South Waldron Road, Suite 201, Fort Smith, AR 72903
Phone: 479-646-0082 or 866-753-4190.

Little Rock Center, 8114 Cantrell Road, Suite 250, Little Rock, AR 72227
Phone: 501-771-9000 or 866-753-4259.

Rogers Center, 2807 Ajax Avenue, Suite 200, Rogers, AR 72758
Phone: 800-528-4723.

Minors

A JBU Online Undergraduate minor is a formally recognized aggregate of courses in a designated secondary subject area or discipline usually outside of (but often complementing) the student's degree major and in which knowledge is gained in a coherent pattern of courses.

Completion of a minor requires 12 semester hours, in accordance with the department's specifications, including at least three hours of upper-division courses. The minimum grade point average for course work in the minor is 2.0.

ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP

(SYMBOL: OL)

Student Learning Outcomes for Organizational Leadership

The Organizational Leadership degree is a diverse, compressed program that is designed to address the needs of varied learners including: mid-career organizational members who are seeking to equip themselves to advance their opportunities for advancement and less work-experienced learners who have an interest in developing the foundational organizational tools, knowledge and personal skills necessary for organizational success. This curriculum, created with a uniquely Christian worldview, develops and equips learners in ways that are relevant to leadership in a broad range of organizational contexts.

The OL major should achieve the following outcomes:

Effective Communication: Communicate effectively and professionally in various contexts using diverse techniques and contemporary media.

Critical Reasoning and Research: Conceptualize, apply, analyze, synthesize, and evaluate information to address questions, perform analyses, understand and apply results, reach conclusions, and assess impact.

Global Leadership and Teams: Understand the servant leadership model and be able to lead individuals and teams to perform effectively in global and culturally diverse contexts.

Business Skills and Knowledge: Demonstrate skills and knowledge relevant to a leadership and management focus necessary for professional growth and success in global and culturally-diverse contexts.

Christian Worldview: anticipate, identify, and resolve moral, ethical, and legal dilemmas through their understanding and application of the Christian worldview.

COURSE NUMBERS & OFFERINGS

Understanding the Course Numbering System and Pre- and Co-requisites

Course offerings are numbered utilizing four digits, the first indicating college year and the last the number of semester hours credit.

Courses numbered 0001 to 0999 are considered remedial; hours do not count toward minimum requirements for graduation.

Courses numbered 3001 to 4999 fulfill requirements for upper-division credits. Most of these courses have specified prerequisites.

Courses numbered 0001 to 4999 are listed in the Undergraduate Catalog.

A prerequisite course must have been completed with an acceptable passing grade before enrollment in the given course is permitted.

A corequisite is a course in which a student must be enrolled and satisfactorily participating concurrently with the given course.

STUDENT RESOURCES

RESOURCES FOR LEARNING

John Brown University Library

The two-story John Brown University library-also known as the Arutunoff Learning Resource Center-is the central location for resources supporting the research needs of the JBU community. The library is an important part of the academic program at JBU and functions as a partner in the teaching/learning process. The main collection consists of over 120,000 items, including books, microforms, and DVDs. In addition, the library subscribes to more than 90,000 periodical titles, nearly all of which are available electronically. The library also subscribes to over 100 electronic databases (full-text periodicals, online reference resources, and indexes). The library provides access to 198,000 e-book titles, including 800 online reference books.

The professional library staff provides research and reference services to both individuals and groups, and efficient interlibrary loan services to the JBU community. The library facility includes large and small study rooms, a classroom, presentation practice space, quiet and comfortable spaces for reading, and 32 computers for student use.

In addition to resources in the main library, a number of materials are housed in three library branches. The Music Library, on the lower level of the Cathedral, contains music sound recordings, scores, and appropriate listening equipment. The Career Development Center Library, on the first floor of the Walker Student Center, houses materials related to vocational counseling and graduate school opportunities. The Soderquist Leadership Library is located in the Soderquist Business Center, and contains materials relevant to business and ethics.

The Film Library is housed in the library and contains films that have been selected based on their recommendation by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, the American Film Institute, or Spiritually Significant Films.

The gateway to the JBU Library is its web site, www.jbu.edu/library, where information about all library collections and services may be obtained. The library web site features an online catalog that can be accessed from any computer with an Internet connection. Students can connect to electronic databases through the campus network and via remote access. Reference questions and interlibrary loan requests can be made using online forms found at the web site, text messaging, or via e-mail to library@jbu.edu.

The JBU Library belongs to several networks and consortia. To provide efficient interlibrary loan services, the library is a member of the Online Computer Library Center (OCLC), which gives our users borrowing privileges to over 250 million items held in over 72,000 member libraries worldwide. The library belongs to ARKLink (a consortium of 47 academic libraries in Arkansas) and AMIGOS (a regional resource-sharing network). The library is a charter member of the Christian Librarian Association Network.

Special collections in the JBU library include the published materials of the school's founder, John E. Brown, Sr., materials of radio evangelist J. Vernon McGee, the Romig juvenile literature collection, and the Gary and Carrie Oliver Marriage and Family Resource Room. In addition, the JBU archives houses an extensive collection of artifacts related to the history of the university.

Information Technology Services

John Brown University has many technology resources available for students. All campus buildings and remote sites are interconnected with a network infrastructure that allows for authorized access from classrooms, laboratories, offices, residence halls, and remote locations. Wireless networking also extends accessibility in most residential and study areas throughout the university.

On the Siloam Springs campus, there are computer labs in each academic building for student use. The Library has general purpose, collaborative computing resources available days and evenings throughout the week. Both black and white and color printing is available for a small fee.

JBU Online Undergraduate students have access to additional computing resources at the Fort Smith Center, Little Rock Center, and Rogers Center. Computers with Internet access and laser printing are available for student use in common study areas. Wireless Internet access is also available.

There is a Media Lab located on the main campus in the Learning Resource Center (LRC room 155), next to the Library, open to students and faculty to work on academic and co-curricular projects. Digital cameras, voice recorders, video cameras, and other audio/visual technology may be checked out by students for no cost. Supplies such as posterboard, resume paper, and blank DVDs for projects and classes are available for sale. Special printing services, laminating, binding, and media transfers are also offered.

Students who bring a computer to any of the campuses may connect to the campus network using their provided username and password. Once connected, students can access the Internet, EagleNet, the Library, JBU email, and personal network storage.

Policies regarding the privacy of electronic information and appropriate computer use at John Brown University may be referenced in the Information Technology Services Acceptable Use Policy. This, and additional information about technology services, may be found through the web via the EagleNet portal or by contacting the ITS Help Desk at 479-524-7256, or email help@jbu.edu.

Important Notice Regarding the Privacy of Electronic Information

John Brown University cannot and does not make any guarantee, explicit or implied, regarding the privacy of electronic mail or information saved in network folders. Electronic communication is vulnerable to interception, misdirection, or rerouting. Therefore, highly confidential materials should be delivered or stored in another manner.

Note also that occasionally a representative of the university may see all or part of an electronic message sent by you or addressed to you. University personnel may also view files saved in network folders. Information contained in electronic messages or network directory files may be used against you in disciplinary proceedings.

Policies for appropriate computer use at JBU:

Disciplinary action will be taken whenever anyone is found to be in violation of this code. Violations of civil or criminal law will be referred to Campus Security.

- You should use only those computer accounts which have been authorized for your use.
- You must always identify computing work with your own name or other approved ID. Do not attempt to modify files or otherwise work on the JBU Network without logging in.
- You are responsible for any activity conducted with your computer accounts. Do not tell anyone else your password or “log on” to a computer for someone else using your account.
- If you have access to privileged or sensitive information, you may not disclose that information for any purpose other than official University business.
- You must not attempt to access, copy, or destroy programs or files that belong to other users or to the University without prior authorization.
- Unauthorized or fraudulent use of the University's computing resources is a serious violation of University regulations and may be against the law.
- You may not use JBU computer systems to make or store illegal copies of copyrighted digital materials, including computer programs, pictures, clipart and other images, movies and videos, textual information, articles, reports, and music. If you are running KaZaa, Morpheus, iMesh, Grokster, Limewire, Bearshare, WinMX or any other similar programs and storing the files you download on JBU computers, you are probably in violation of this policy.

- Programs acquired elsewhere must not be used on JBU computers. Only Information Technology Services (ITS) may place software onto the network or onto lab computers.
 - Do not store shareware, freeware, uninstalled plugins, or other downloaded software on lab hard drives or in personal network folders. Such files will be deleted regularly from lab computers and network folders.
 - Your use of software owned by John Brown University must abide by the copyright and license agreements. It is your responsibility to become familiar with the copyright/ licensing agreements before using a product. It is illegal to copy most software products.
 - Theft of hardware, software, supplies or other properties will be reported to the University's Security Office as a crime.
 - Out of consideration for others, you should also observe the following guidelines:
 - Do not forward chain letters.
 - Do not send email messages to everyone on the JBU address list
 - Please keep your network home folder cleared out of un-needed files.
 - Please delete un-needed messages from your email mailbox.
 - Do not play games on lab computers.
 - Please observe the two-hour maximum use policy in labs during peak times.
- Please observe any usage guidelines posted in labs.
- Do not connect a wireless access point or any other wireless equipment to the JBU Network without consulting with ITS.
 - Do not attempt to modify system facilities in any way. Intentional compromise of system integrity by virus or other means may result in disciplinary action.
 - Do not attempt to disable or bypass network security systems. This includes the use of various "Tunneling" protocols and remote proxy web sites ("Anonymisers") to hide the true nature of what you are doing.
 - Sending harassing, threatening, or sexually explicit messages will result in disciplinary action.
 - Internet users must abide by JBU's behavioral code while online, including but not limited to not using accounts to engage in gambling activities, obtaining pornographic or other objectionable material, or conducting for-profit business.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

Services for Students with Disabilities

It is the goal of John Brown University that all enrolled students be given equal opportunity to succeed in their quest for a higher education that is based upon our "Christ Over All" philosophy and that integrates the educational principles of "Head, Heart, and Hand."

In accordance with the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments of 2008, John Brown University is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to students who are disabled. Students having documented disabilities are encouraged to contact the Director, Jarrod Heathcote, by email to jheathcote@jbu.edu.

Student Development Office

Office of Christian Formation

The Office of Christian Formation (OCF) exists to lead the JBU community to become more like Christ through discipleship, corporate worship, and outreach. Within OCF are these primary divisions related to JBU students: Chapel, and Student Ministries.

Chaplain

The JBU Online Undergraduate Program Chaplain serves JBU's adult and online learner population through pastoral presence and prayer. The Chaplain writes a regular devotion and receives and prays for any prayer requests given on behalf of the students. In these and a variety of other ways, the Chaplain supports the mission of John Brown University, fostering the spiritual growth of its students, giving emotional support and assistance when needed.

Counseling Services

(JBU) Subsidized Counseling for JBU Online Undergraduate Students: Students who are currently enrolled full-time and in online undergraduate classes are eligible to receive JBU-subsidized counseling services at counseling practices that have agreements with JBU in place. Counseling is for the purpose of helping the students work through personal concerns that might otherwise make continuing their education more of a challenge. For information, email Missy Swyers at MSwyers@jbu.edu.

STUDENT RIGHTS

You have rights as students that are protected by law. This section of the Student Handbook summarizes some of those rights which are guaranteed to you and all students.

Notice of Nondiscriminatory Policy

John Brown University admits persons to its programs and activities without regard to race, color, national or ethnic origin, or gender. The university does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, physical or mental disability, or gender in the administration of education policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletics, and other school-sponsored programs.

Rights of Access to Your Educational Records (FERPA)

The Buckley Amendment to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 extends to all former and presently enrolled students at JBU the right of access to certain educational records maintained by this institution. Student rights include:

1. Inspection and review.
2. Explanation or interpretation of contents.
3. Duplication of the record at a standard fee of 10 cents per page.
4. A formal hearing, if necessary, to challenge the contents of any such record.

"Educational records" include those records, files, documents, and other materials which contain information directly related to a student and are maintained by this institution or by a person acting for this institution. Not included in this term are:

1. Records in the sole possession of the maker thereof, which are not accessible or revealed to any other person.
2. Records maintained by a professional or paraprofessional in medical or psychological treatment of the student and which are not available to anyone other than the persons providing such treatment.
3. Records of employees of this institution who are not presently in attendance and which pertain solely to their employment.
4. Confidential letters and statements of recommendation placed in the student's file prior to January 1, 1975.
5. If the student first signs a waiver the student will not have the access to confidential recommendations subsequently compiled respecting:
 - a. admission to JBU
 - b. application for employment
 - c. receipt of honorary recognition

6. Financial records of parents of students.

Requests for access to educational records should be submitted in writing directly to the school official responsible for custody of the records. A standard form, "Student Request to Review Record," is available at the Registrar's Office. Consistent with time and record security limitations, access must be granted or permission denied and a reason stated within 45 days of the request to review the record. Access will be denied only for reasons specifically authorized by the act and applicable regulations.

An informal record review and resolution of conflict is urged. If this process does not prove satisfactory, the student may petition the Student Rights Committee for a formal hearing. Petitions for a hearing should be submitted through the Registrar.

The Student Rights Committee has been appointed specifically to deal with student petitions under applicable federal laws and regulations, such as the Buckley Amendment. The student has the right to challenge the content of the record only on the ground that it is inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the privacy or other rights of the student. No challenges will be heard regarding the merit upon which individual grades have been based. The record may be amended, based upon the Committee's findings, or the student may insert in the record a statement commenting upon or rebutting the document.

All determinations of the Student Rights Committee are subject to a final review by the President, if requested by the student in writing, within two weeks of the Committee's decision.

JBU's Response to the Requirements of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act

A copy of the institutional policy adopted in response to the requirements of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) may be obtained from the Registrar's Office. Any student having pursued the administrative remedy may submit a further appeal in writing to: The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act Office, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, 330 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20201.

Release of Personal Data

At its discretion, John Brown University may provide directory information in accordance with the provisions of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). Directory information is defined as the information which would not generally be considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if disclosed. Directory information at John Brown University includes the following:

- a. Name
- b. Address
- c. Telephone
- d. Date and place of birth
- e. Major field of study and year in school
- f. Participation in officially recognized sports and activities

- g. Weight and height of members of athletic teams
- h. Dates of attendance
- i. Degrees and awards received
- j. The most recent previous educational agency or institution attended
- k. Parents' name and addresses
- l. Marital status (name of spouse)
- m. Religious preference

Students may request that directory information be withheld (non-disclosure) by selecting Withhold Directory Information at each term's electronic pre-registration. Also, the student may amend their FERPA status at any time by contacting the appropriate Center.

Statement for the Prevention of Drug and Alcohol Abuse at John Brown University

Behavioral Expectations: The behavioral expectations of JBU for every member of its community include prohibiting the possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol on its property or as part of its activities.

Treatment Support: Students may have as many sessions with the university counselor as the counselor deems necessary. Assessment and/or referral may be part of the process.

Behavioral Review and Actions: Students at JBU who are involved with alcohol and/or drug abuse are subject to review by the campus judicial system. The judicial process facilitates awareness, understanding, and restitution while encouraging desirable behavior and inhibiting undesirable behavior. The specific sanctions of the judicial process are as follows: admonition, formal warning, developmental contract, disciplinary probation, restitution, fines, denial of privilege, suspension, and dismissal.

Students who sell illicit drugs will have their relationship with the college terminated along with being referred to local authorities for prosecution.

Review of Drug and Alcohol Abuse Statement: This statement is subject to biennial review by John Brown University in order to implement necessary changes and ensure consistent application.

Requirement to Report Violation: It is a requirement of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 that workplace drug convictions of employees be reported by the employee to his/her employer within five days of conviction. A condition of employment at JBU is that this requirement be adhered to.

Requirement to Support Drug-Free Policy: It is also a condition of employment that employees understand and support the Statement for the Prevention of Drug and Alcohol Abuse at John Brown University.

Weapons, Fireworks, and Explosives

Arkansas state law prohibits the possession of guns on any campus or site. This includes all firearms, BB guns, pellet guns, paint pellet guns, Airsoft guns, and all other devices which expel a projectile through a barrel by using energy generated by an explosion, burning substance, carbon dioxide cartridge, compressed air, etc. In addition, ammunition, martial arts gear, machetes, knives, bows and arrows, slingshots, and similar items that could harm others must be kept off campus and university property.

Students are not to carry weapons, fireworks, or explosives in their vehicle or onto the premises or buildings affiliated with John Brown University.

Questions about state laws that apply to firearms should be directed to the Campus Safety Coordinator at 479-524-7403. If you see suspicious activities please call campus security at 479-524-7162 or call 911.

Harassment Policy

Harassment, Including Sexual Harassment

John Brown University is committed to an environment in which all people are treated with respect and dignity. Each individual has the right to live and study in an atmosphere that promotes learning opportunities and prohibits practices such as harassment. Therefore, John Brown University expects that all relationships among students and employees will be collegial and free of harassment. John Brown University encourages reporting of all perceived incidents of harassment. It is the policy of JBU to investigate such reports. JBU prohibits retaliation against any person who reports harassment or participates in an investigation of such reports.

Definitions of Harassment

Sexual harassment may include a range of subtle and not so subtle behaviors and may involve individuals of the same or different gender. Depending on the circumstances, these behaviors may include, but are not limited to: unwanted sexual advances or requests for sexual favors; sexual jokes and innuendo; verbal abuse of a sexual nature; commentary about an individual's body, sexual prowess or sexual deficiencies; leering, whistling or touching; insulting or obscene comments or gestures; display in the workplace of sexually suggestive objects or pictures; and other physical, verbal or visual conduct of a sexual nature.

1. Harassment on the basis of any other protected characteristic is also strictly prohibited. Under this policy, harassment is verbal or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward any person because of race, color, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital status, citizenship or any other characteristic protected by law or that of his/her relatives, friends or associates, and that: (i) has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment; (ii) has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's performance; or (iii) otherwise adversely affects an individual's opportunities.
2. Harassing conduct includes, but is not limited to: epithets, slurs or negative stereotyping; threatening, intimidating or hostile acts; denigrating jokes; and written or graphic material that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual or group and that is placed on walls or elsewhere on the campus or at outlying centers, or circulated in the workplace.

Reporting an Incident of Harassment, Discrimination or Retaliation

John Brown University encourages reporting of all perceived incidents of harassment or retaliation, regardless of the offender's identity or position. Students who believe that they have been the victim of such conduct should discuss their concerns with one of the University's Title IX Compliance Coordinators by email to TitleIXCoordinator@jbu.edu, or by phone to André Broquard 479.524.7229 or Amy Fisher 479.524.7128. (See complaint procedures below.)

In addition, JBU encourages students who believe they are being subjected to such conduct to advise the offender promptly that his or her behavior is unwelcome and request that it be discontinued. Often this action alone will resolve the problem. JBU recognizes, however, that an individual may prefer to pursue the matter through informal or formal complaint procedures.

Informal Complaint Procedure

If for any reason an individual does not wish to address the offender directly, or if such action does not successfully end the offensive conduct, the student should notify a University Title IX Compliance Coordinator by email to TitleIXCoordinator@jbu.edu, or by phone André Broquard 479.524.7229 or Amy Fisher 479.524.7128, who may, if the student requests, talk to the alleged offender on the student's behalf. In addition, there may be instances in which a student seeks only to discuss matters with one of the JBU designated representatives, and such discussion is encouraged.

A student reporting harassment or retaliation should be aware however that JBU may decide it is necessary to take action to address such conduct beyond an informal discussion. This decision will be discussed with the student. The best course of action in any case will depend on many factors and, therefore, the informal procedure will remain flexible. Moreover, the informal procedure is not a required first step for the reporting individual.

Formal Complaint Procedure

As noted above, students who believe they have been the victims of conduct prohibited by this policy statement or believe they have witnessed such conduct should discuss their concerns with one of the University's Title IX Compliance Coordinators by email to TitleIXCoordinator@jbu.edu, or by phone: André Broquard 479.524.7229 or Amy Fisher 479.524.7128.

John Brown University encourages the prompt reporting of complaints or concerns so that rapid and constructive action can be taken before relationships become irreparably strained. Therefore, while no fixed reporting period has been established, early reporting and intervention have proven to be the most effective method of resolving actual or perceived incidents of harassment.

Any reported allegations of harassment, discrimination or retaliation will be investigated promptly. The investigation may include individual interviews with the parties involved and, where necessary, with individuals who may have observed the alleged conduct or may have other relevant knowledge.

Confidentiality will be maintained throughout the investigatory process to the extent consistent with adequate investigation and appropriate corrective action.

Retaliation against a student for reporting harassment or discrimination or for participating in an investigation of a claim of harassment or discrimination is a serious violation of this policy and, like harassment itself, will be subject to disciplinary action. Acts of retaliation should be reported immediately and will be promptly investigated and addressed.

Misconduct constituting harassment, discrimination or retaliation will be dealt with appropriately.

Responsive action may include, for example, training, referral to counseling and/or disciplinary action such as warning, reprimand, housing reassignment, temporary suspension or dismissal, as JBU believes appropriate under the circumstances.

If a party to a complaint does not agree with its resolution, that party may appeal to the President of JBU. False and malicious complaints of harassment or retaliation as opposed to complaints, which, even if erroneous, are made in good faith, may be the subject of appropriate disciplinary action.

Conclusion

John Brown University has developed this policy to ensure that all its students can live and work in an environment free from harassment and retaliation. JBU will make every reasonable effort to ensure that all concerned are familiar with these policies and aware that any complaint in violation of such policies will be investigated and resolved appropriately.

Any student who has any questions or concerns about these policies should talk with one of the University's Title IX Compliance Coordinators who can be reached by email to TitleIXCoordinator@jbu.edu, or by phone: André Broquard 479.524.7229 or Amy Fisher 479.524.7128.

Finally, these policies should not, and may not, be used as a basis for excluding or separating students of a particular gender, or any other protected characteristic, from participating in academic and social activities or discussions. In other words, no one should make the mistake of engaging in exclusion in order to avoid allegations of harassment. The law and the policies of John Brown University prohibit disparate treatment on the basis of sex or any other protected characteristic, with regard to terms, conditions, privileges and prerequisites of attendance. The prohibitions against harassment and retaliation are intended to complement and further those policies, not to form the basis of an exception to them.

AIDS Policy

No plan or policy can deal adequately with the AIDS phenomenon; yet the presence of this lethal disease without remedy forces colleges, hospitals, businesses, and many other organizations to articulate procedures. At best, the JBU plan reflects updated medical opinion, legal considerations, review of other policies, and documented experience with the impact of the disease. For John Brown University, the special concern is how AIDS fits into the Christian world view. As Christians, it is our desire to ". . . bring every thought captive to the obedience of Christ." (II Cor. 10:5b)

A descriptive document of the university's perspective on AIDS is available in the Student Life Office on the main campus.

The JBU policy shall be that a person with AIDS should be treated as any other with the exception of (1) consideration of the risk of infection to the person with AIDS or others, (2) the support necessary for the person with AIDS, and (3) the full cooperation of the person with AIDS in meeting guidelines for continued enrollment or employment.

The community standards of JBU may require discipline or employment of action for some due to the method of acquisition of AIDS, but people with AIDS will be viewed no differently than others who participate in similar actions.

Nondiscrimination: John Brown University will not exclude an individual from admission, employment, facilities usage, or activities solely on the basis of having AIDS. A person with AIDS may, however, be excluded from university functions based on medical determination of risk of infection to or from others. A short-term exclusion may be used when it is determined there is a need for additional medical diagnostic appraisal or a situation of such a serious and urgent nature that temporary exclusion of the infected person is in the best interest of all concerned.

Education as Key: Education is the primary method by which our university can deal with preventing and understanding AIDS. Concurrent with a campus AIDS policy is the need for an educational program that presents the community with current knowledge through diverse formats. A community that is aware of the truth about AIDS is better able to handle its reality in its members' lives. While the university's response in some cases may need to deal with the lifestyle expectation and standards set out in scripture, we also wish to respond to each individual person in Christian love and compassion. We must ". . . bear each other's burdens" and "do good to all people" (Gal 6:2,10). We must ". . . weep with those who weep" with the compassion Christ had for those who were suffering (Luke 7:13; 10:33; 15:20).

Confidentiality: The rights of privacy and confidentiality will be maintained within the purview of those persons with direct administrative and health care responsibilities.

Testing: The university encourages students and employees who desire confidential AIDS testing to contact the Counseling Office. Pre- and post-AIDS counseling are also recommended. Students under disciplinary review for sexual intercourse and/or drug abuse may be asked to submit to a confidential blood test as a condition for continued enrollment.

Responsibilities of Persons Infected with AIDS: Persons with AIDS, ARC, or positive HTLV-III antibody test are required to (1) secure qualified medical care, (2) abstain from high-risk behavior, and (3) inform the university counselor of their situation.

Federal and State Regulations: JBU will comply with federal and state regulations and policies that protect the confidentiality of medical and educational records and with the requirements for timely reporting of test results or medical conditions to health authorities.

Evaluation: These policies will be reviewed regularly to seek to assure that they are based on the latest and most reliable medical information reasonably and generally available regarding management of AIDS cases. They may be modified at any time based on new findings and recommendations from medical and health agencies.

Guidelines for Use of Human Subjects in Testing

To ensure the ethical treatment of human participants in research, John Brown University has instituted the Human Subjects Committee of the Institutional Review Board to evaluate and monitor research with human participants carried out by JBU faculty, staff, administration, and students. Research that collects responses from subjects regarding sensitive aspects of personal behavior (e.g., illegal conduct, drug use, sexual attitudes or behavior, use of alcohol, rape, incest, racial attitudes) must undergo either full or expedited review. Also, research that involves psychologically invasive procedures such as detailed personality inventories must undergo either full or expedited review. Research procedures that do not require review by the Human Subjects Committee are listed below.

Human Subjects Committee Exemptions

Primary research survey procedures, interview procedures, or observation of public behavior are exempt from the review process in the following instances:

- Data are recorded so that subjects cannot be individually identified.
- There will be no disclosure of the human subjects' survey responses outside the research that could reasonably place the subjects at risk of criminal or civil liability or be damaging to the subjects' financial standing, employability, or reputation.
- The study is for taste and food quality evaluation or consumer acceptance.
- The procedures involve the public behavior of elected or appointed public officials or candidates for public office.

Secondary sources are exempt if publicly available or the secondary source information is recorded by the investigator in such a manner that subjects cannot be identified in any way.

Graduate and Online Degree Programs: Student Policy Statement

The mission of John Brown University is to provide a Christ-centered education that prepares people to honor God and serve others by developing their intellectual, spiritual and professional lives. JBU encourages all of its students to live by Christian commitments as articulated in scripture, including, for example, practicing kindness, stewardship, fidelity in marriage, chastity in singleness, forgiveness, reconciliation, justice, and self-control and refraining from dishonesty, obscene language, pornography, and abuse of alcohol and other substances. However, JBU also recognizes that students in its graduate or online degree programs are adults, and are, therefore, responsible for their own choices about moral behavior.

Accordingly, JBU requests from each student exclusively enrolled in graduate school or online degree program a sympathetic appreciation of, if not adherence to, JBU's Christian commitments. JBU reserves the right to address persistent behavior or advocacy in conflict with these Christian commitments that unduly disrupts the learning of other members of the JBU community.
