This semester’s chapel program will focus on the book of Ecclesiastes. Most Tuesdays will feature a university professor or leader who will guide us through a passage, while Thursdays will feature guest speakers who will address a variety of topics. In addition, this semester’s program will include some special emphases, such as Spiritual Renewal Week, MLK Jr. Day, Leadership Week, and Celebration of Academic Excellence.

Chapel services take place at 10:30 a.m. in the Cathedral of the Ozarks unless otherwise noted. Additional chapel opportunities include The Gathering (Sundays, 9 p.m., Cathedral) and Vespers (selected Tuesdays, 9 p.m., Jones Recital Hall), plus a variety of special events throughout the semester.

For more information on chapel and for the most up-to-date schedule, see www.jbu.edu/faith/chapel/.

JBU Faculty and Staff Speakers
See page 2 for guest speakers.
Spring 2013 Guest Chapel Speakers

James Choung serves as the national director of InterVarsity Asian American Ministries, and is an ordained minister of the Vineyard USA. He has written True Story: A Christianity Worth Believing In and Real Life: A Christianity Worth Living Out. He has taught at Bethel Seminary San Diego and his work has been featured in many publications, including Christianity Today and Leadership Journal.

Mark Soderquist is the executive director of Westlawn Youth Network and serves as one of the pastors of Westlawn Gospel Chapel in Chicago. In 1990 he founded Urban & Ethnic Ministries, an organization committed to working in partnership with ethnic churches. Derrick Rollerson is the president and founder of Westlawn Youth Network and also serves as the executive pastor of Westlawn Gospel Chapel.

Rev. Eric Samuel Timm is part artist and part speaker, performing for thousands each year. He is sought after for his ability to present God’s truth in ways that are attractive both to the church and to people who aren’t in a current relationship with Christ. Eric, founder of No One Underground, resides in Minnesota with his family, creating with purpose.

Bob Goff is an attorney and New York Times best-selling author of Love Does. He is founder of Restore International, a non-profit human rights organization operating in Uganda and India. Additionally, he serves as the honorary consul for the Republic of Uganda to the United States, and is an adjunct professor at both Pepperdine Law School and Point Loma Nazarene University. He comes as a guest of The Soderquist Center for Leadership & Ethics.

Jon Acuff has contributed to CNN.com, speaks nationally on a variety of subjects, and is the author of Quitter; Gazelles, Baby Steps and 37 Other Things Dave Ramsey Taught Me About Debt; and Stuff Christians Like. He lives in Nashville, Tennessee, with his wife and two daughters. He comes as a guest of The Soderquist Center for Leadership & Ethics.

Hadden Wilson lives in Northern Ireland where he is a faculty member of JBU’s Irish Studies program. Previously he served for fifteen years as Pastor of Ballynahinch Baptist Church. He and his wife Betty have also spent a year at JBU serving as Missionaries in Residence.

Moffat Zimba is the president of Northrise University. Moffat and his wife Doreen founded the university in 2004. Located in Ndola, Zambia, Northrise is the first nationally recognized and accredited private university in Zambia, and has an enrollment of over 500 students in five undergraduate degrees and a Master of Business Administration.

Joe White has a deep passion for pointing kids to Christ through Christian sports camping. He and his wife Debbie Jo have worked together to see Kanakuk Kamps grow into nine unique Kamps and have also founded Kids Across America for inner-city kids. Joe has written nineteen books and speaks across the country.

Mark Soderquist is the executive director of Westlawn Youth Network and serves as one of the pastors of Westlawn Gospel Chapel in Chicago. In 1990 he founded Urban & Ethnic Ministries, an organization committed to working in partnership with ethnic churches. Derrick Rollerson is the president and founder of Westlawn Youth Network and also serves as the executive pastor of Westlawn Gospel Chapel.

Rev. Eric Samuel Timm is part artist and part speaker, performing for thousands each year. He is sought after for his ability to present God’s truth in ways that are attractive both to the church and to people who aren’t in a current relationship with Christ. Eric, founder of No One Underground, resides in Minnesota with his family, creating with purpose.

Bob Goff is an attorney and New York Times best-selling author of Love Does. He is founder of Restore International, a non-profit human rights organization operating in Uganda and India. Additionally, he serves as the honorary consul for the Republic of Uganda to the United States, and is an adjunct professor at both Pepperdine Law School and Point Loma Nazarene University. He comes as a guest of The Soderquist Center for Leadership & Ethics.

Jon Acuff has contributed to CNN.com, speaks nationally on a variety of subjects, and is the author of Quitter; Gazelles, Baby Steps and 37 Other Things Dave Ramsey Taught Me About Debt; and Stuff Christians Like. He lives in Nashville, Tennessee, with his wife and two daughters. He comes as a guest of The Soderquist Center for Leadership & Ethics.

Hadden Wilson lives in Northern Ireland where he is a faculty member of JBU’s Irish Studies program. Previously he served for fifteen years as Pastor of Ballynahinch Baptist Church. He and his wife Betty have also spent a year at JBU serving as Missionaries in Residence.

Moffat Zimba is the president of Northrise University. Moffat and his wife Doreen founded the university in 2004. Located in Ndola, Zambia, Northrise is the first nationally recognized and accredited private university in Zambia, and has an enrollment of over 500 students in five undergraduate degrees and a Master of Business Administration.

Joe White has a deep passion for pointing kids to Christ through Christian sports camping. He and his wife Debbie Jo have worked together to see Kanakuk Kamps grow into nine unique Kamps and have also founded Kids Across America for inner-city kids. Joe has written nineteen books and speaks across the country.