EasyBib is an advertising-supported service. JBU does not have control over, and does not endorse, the advertisements that appear on the website.

EasyBib can be a useful tool to help you create bibliographies, but you should not rely on it for perfect results. Familiarize yourself with the rules of the style you are using so that you understand what information is required for each citation and can create or correct your citations as needed.

If you have questions about citing sources, contact the JBU Writing Center or the JBU Library Research Help Desk.
